“Sharpen Your Communication Skills: Introduction to Appreciative Inquiry”

- Presented by Jennifer L. Bloom, Ed.D, Associate Dean for Student Affairs and the Medical Scholars Program, The University of Illinois College of Medicine at Champaign-Urbana

Appreciative Inquiry is a powerful theory developed in 1979 by David Cooperrider. Dr. Bloom will share how you can use these principles to build rapport and strengthen relationships with your clients, as well as your family and friends, and will demonstrate the powerful nature of this approach.

In our business, as in any type of sales in general, it’s all about relationships. Don’t miss this opportunity to learn and enhance your communication skills.
