About the Speakers... Myrna Goldberg & Kris Ruben concentrate their practice in real estate, general corporate law, estate planning and income tax preparation.

Myrna earned her B.A. with highest distinction from the University of Michigan in 1984 and earned her J.D. from the University of Michigan Law School in 1987. At the University of Michigan Law School she was a member and editor of the University Of Michigan Journal Of Law Reform. Prior to opening Ruben & Goldberg, LLC, Myrna practiced with the firm of Rudnick & Wolfe. She is currently an affiliate member of the North Shore Chapter of the Illinois Women’s Council of Realtors and a member of the Bylaws Committee. She is also a member of the Illinois Real Estate Lawyers Association and the Chicago Bar Association, and The Greater North Shore Estate and Financial Planning Council.

Kris attended the University of Illinois and graduated with a B.S. in 1987. In 1991, she earned her J.D. with high honors from Chicago-Kent College of Law and was an editor of the Law Review. After graduation, Kristen was a law clerk for the Honorable Rudy Lozano, District Judge for Northern District of Indiana. She is the President of the West Northfield School District 31 Board of Education and has been on the board since 2001. She is the immediate past President of the West Northfield School District 31 Education Foundation and has been a board member since 2003. She is also an affiliate member of the North Shore Chapter of the Illinois Women’s Council of Realtors and a member of the Bylaws Committee. She is a member of the Illinois Real Estate Lawyers Association, and the Chicago Bar Association.

About the Program... Kris and Myrna will discuss important case law in the real estate industry, tax issues pertaining to real estate brokers such as what kinds of deductions a broker should be taking, and will highlight important recent changes in the tax laws that affect the real estate professional. A Q&A session will follow.
